

Anti-discrimination Policy

Policy number	P84	Version	3
Approved by Board on	15 August 2019	Scheduled review date	August 2022

1. Purpose

The purpose of this document is to outline NIODA's position on anti-discrimination and to document the processes to be followed to ensure the organisation is free of all forms of discrimination.

2. Scope / Application

This policy applies to all board and committee members, staff, candidates, students and clients at NIODA.

3. Policy Statement

NIODA endorses diversity, supports equal rights, and does not advocate, support or practise discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap, whether covered by applicable legislation or not, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps of people from disadvantaged groups. NIODA will make all reasonable accommodations to allow people who experience difficulties in their dealings with the organisation to benefit equally from its work.

This document sets out NIODA's policy against such discrimination and details the governance structures, responsibilities and processes that have been established to give effect to that policy

4. Responsibilities

4.1. The board:

- regularly reviews the leadership and commitment given to eliminating discrimination through active promotion of the organisation's Anti-Discrimination Policy.
- monitors performance by way of periodic management reports and assurances.

4.2. The CEO:

- ensures that the organisation's practices and processes incorporate precautions against discrimination in such areas as recruitment, student selection, and course delivery.
- ensures that reasonable accommodations are made to allow diverse groups to access the benefits provided by the organisation.
- ensures that where appropriate, weight is given to the culture and experiences of individuals from disadvantaged groups.
- oversees the performance of managers in these matters.

- reviews and reports to the Board, as appropriate, on the effectiveness of the management systems established to remove discrimination.
- analyses material breaches and identifies compliance system weaknesses for systematic trends and ensures that any adverse trends are addressed.
- promotes a culture of effective policy compliance across the organisation.

4.3. All board and committee members and staff:

- ensure that they are aware of the organisation's policy against discrimination.
- where appropriate, suggest ways in which practices, systems and procedures could be improved so as to reduce the likelihood of discrimination occurring.

5. Processes

The CEO initially reviews the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy, and reports to the NIODA Board of Governance on this matter.

The CEO reviews any changes to the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy.

Board and committee members and staff follow these procedures.
